

Salisbury Pa. Sept-1-36

Mr Otto R. Younker,
Dear Cousin.

I was not at the Younker reunion, but my heart was there, my sister is very ill and I couldn't leave her.

In the first place I am going to answer your questions if I can.

You ask about Samuel Lichter, My great-great grandfather was John Lichter married to Lydia Greer, they had children, <sup>1</sup> Jacob - (my great grandfather), <sup>2</sup> David, <sup>3</sup> Samuel, <sup>4</sup> Margaret, <sup>5</sup> Sally (Sarah), <sup>6</sup> John.

Samuel married Mary Ann Mc Nair
(born Jan 1 31 81)

Their Children

- 1 Lydia Margaret - married Mrs Kained -
- 2 ~~Catherine~~ Sarah - " Eli Younker - (no children)
- 3 John M. " Nancy King
- 4 Minerva Jane went West -
- 5 Martha married Freeman Brougher - (no children)
- 6 Scott went West
- 7 Susan " " Maria Griffith. ?
- 8 - Catharine Ann M. Harmon Phillipi (no children)

This answers who these women were.

John M. (3) above, had one child, Candace, who married F. H. Dull of Harmsville, she died a year ago.

Scott (6) above - Had one child - Candace - married to a Miller lives in Dixon Ill. Miss Carrie Dull gave me this information, Samuel was married again but Carrie doesn't know who she was, maybe you know.

Marcellus Lichter had no sisters, brothers

Milton + Norman<sup>B</sup>. I am so glad to learn of Uncle Lewis' wife, Katie, father spoke so much of her. In the history of Kameville it spoke of Gramy Lichter being a sister of Mrs George Kaw. I was so anxious to know who this Gramy could have been, your letter answers my query. She was young to be Gramy. I was so anxious to find where she is buried, I want to go over to Turkeyfoot this fall.

I can't help you out much on the Keimer's but I have that Elizabeth<sup>Yonkin</sup> had the following brothers and sisters, 'John', 'Henry', 'Catherine', 'Jacob', 'Mary', 'Fredrick', 'Sarah', 'Barbara', 'Margaret'. I didn't know Henry J. Yonkin had any sisters, but as you say it is quite likely she married a Keimer.

Father always said he and Marcellus<sup>Lichter</sup> were double Cousins. For Levi and John C were brothers and Susaw + Katie were first Cousins, so guess that is proof. Where did Rev. Herman Yonkin who is buried at Paddy town come in? We often go to that cemetery, as John C. my grandfather, and Elizabeth Keimer Yonkin my great grand mother is buried by his side. I think Henry J Yonkin is buried near Kingwood, I think he and Elizabeth were not so happy. Although he died rather young, they had a big family, but I rather think he was a drinker.

This is a rather wiped up letter but hope you will be able to get something out of it.

Nursing and letter writing don't go so well.
 Your letter was so Comprehensive and had so many things in I wanted to know.
 Now just where do you come in? I judge from John J, as you seem to be related to the Lichtites, that is Uncle Levi's family.

Before I forget it, Uncle Levi & my grandfather had a brother Samuel too, he moved to Fayette Co quite young and had two sons, Irwin and Henry James, the latter hung himself several years ago. And the Lichtites around Cammellsville and through Fayette
 Co. are mostly offsprings of Great Grandfather
 Jacob and his second wife Martha Williams.

If you have time to answer this soon, it may help me if I go to Turkey foot this fall.
 I just want to loiter around and find out all I can of my Ancestry. I am intensely interested in all this and just feast on any little help
 I can get. Thanking you for your good letter I am

Very Respectfully

Edith Susan Lichtite,

Salisbury

Do you know whose daughter, Barbara Paught was?
 I know her maiden name was Keimer. She lived near the Dwire school house and I know she was related to us some way. I thought perhaps she might be a daughter of that John Keimer & Elizabeth Joubin whom you referred to in your letter? (over)

Do you have the names of Henry J. Younk's brothers and sisters? I have his children.

I think I know the mother of Mrs. Supervising Principal, J. Carman Newcome, was she a Johnson, Mrs. Lizzie Newcome's sister Nannie was married to my mother's brother, Mike Smith.
